TERMS

***PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING*****

Signature on registration form constitutes acceptance of these terms.

1. Payment of tuition and other fees becomes your obligation as soon as you register for classes. This obligation remains until the debt is paid in full or until you officially withdraw from the college within the refund period.
2. Nonpayment of tuition and fees and nonattendance of classes does not constitute official withdrawals from Dominican University. Withdrawal from Dominican University can only be accomplished by filing a complete Drop/Add/Withdrawal Form in the Office of the Registrar.
3. All financial obligations are due in full by the first day of your class. If you are unable to pay in full, arrangements must be made with the Student Accounts Office.
4. If you leave Dominican University with an unpaid balance, Dominican University reserves the right to seek collection of your account. This includes assessing reasonable legal and collection fees to your account, assigning your account to an external collection firm, and reporting your account to national credit bureaus.
5. You will not have access to your diploma and/or transcripts until all financial obligations have been met.
6. If you feel the debt on your account is not valid you can file a dispute within 60 days of the first statement that contained the mistake. Please send all disputes to the Student Accounts Office at bursar@dom.edu.
7. Undergraduate students registered for 12 or more hours are required to document their health insurance; those who do not will be enrolled in and charged for Dominican University's Student Health Insurance Plan. If I have existing health insurance coverage, Medicaid, county care, or another plan for paying your medical expenses, I must complete the Waiver Form at <http://www.dominicaninsurance.com>. Existing coverage will be verified.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASSES

Withdrawal from class must be done formally through the Office of the Registrar. Failure to attend classes or merely giving notice to the instructor will not be regarded as an official notice of withdrawal. Forms are available in Lewis 115 or on the registrar's website; if you cannot come in to complete a form, written notice via fax or mail will be accepted.

A student withdrawing from a class may be liable for part or all of the tuition depending on the date of withdrawal. See the current refund schedule on the Student Accounts website.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

I understand that information about my rights under FERPA is available on the Registrar's website and I further understand that this serves as my annual notification of my rights as required by FERPA.

WAITLISTS

I agree to abide by the waitlist policy posted on the Registrar's website and acknowledge that the policy allows me to waitlist for no more than one section of a course in a given term. I further understand that:

- I can be enrolled in one section of a course and on the waitlist for no more than one other section
- for LAS seminars, this rule applies to the entire level (e.g. I can register for one 200-level seminar and waitlist for no more than one other 200-level seminar)
- if I am on the waitlist for a section of a course that is in a cross-listed relationship with other course section, I may not also add myself to the waitlist of one of the other course sections in the cross-list
- this restriction does not apply to variable topics courses – different courses that use the same numbers – that are designated as such in the course description

I also acknowledge that if I am waitlisted for more than one section of a course (as outlined above), I will be dropped from the waitlist(s) of all but the last (i.e. most recent) section for which I waitlisted.

I understand that it is my responsibility to monitor my Dominican email account for questions from the Office of the Registrar regarding my schedule and for information on whether I have been enrolled into a section from the waitlist.
